ST-PIERRE, Eric, O.C.; président-directeur général; né à St-Hilaire, Qué. 2 août 1947; f. Raymond et Blanche (Messier) St-P.; un enfant: Nicolas; PRÉSIDENT-DIRECTEUR GÉNÉRAL ET FONDATEUR, LA FONDATION MIRA INC. 1981-; En 1981, il présentait les deux premiers chiens-guides dressés au Québec à ses deux premiers utilisateurs. Dès ce moment, après avoir évalué les besoins des personnes aveugles, il entreprit la réalisation d'une oeuvre totalement consacrée à venir en aide aux personnes handicapées. Sa première démarche fut de s'assurer de la collaboration des utilisateurs et des multiples partenaires pour consolider à la fois, le programme de services et le financement pour attribuer gratuitement les chiens. Le nombre de chiens-guides attribués augmentait, de même que la demande. En 1989, MIRA est propriétaire d'un terrain sur lequel se retrouvent un centre d'hébergement, une maternité canine pour les femelles gestantes pouvant produire jusqu'à 250 chiots par année, un chenil pour 100 chiens à l'entraînement ainsi qu'une clinique vétérinaire et un centre administratif. En 1991, il créa un programme chien-guide à intention des jeunes aveugles. Depuis, MIRA a remis 50 chiens-guides à des jeunes. Elle est la seule école au monde à attribuer des chiens-guides à des aveugles âgés de moins de 15 ans. Concurrément dès 1991, il développe un chien hybride appelé à devenir la première race hautement sociable créée par l'homme dans le but de venir en aide à des humains; le Labernois (croisement du Labrador et du Bouvier Bernois). En 1992, il explora le rôle du chien d'assistance auprès des enfants qui présentent de multiples déficiences et des personnes handicapées physiques. En 1994, MIRA acquit une ferme de reproduction, de recherche et de développement. Sur ce site, il a tenu des classes de chiens-guides à l'intention de personnes sourdes-aveugles. Depuis 1981, MIRA a donné plus de 500 chiens-guides, 165 chiens d'assistance. MIRA est reconnue comme l'un des meilleurs centres de dressage de chiens-guides pour aveugles au monde. Mr. St-Pierre a reçu le Grand Prix de l'Entrepreneur responsable envers la collectivité 1995 et le Grand Richelieu 1996; Officier de l'Ordre du Canada 1997; Prix Reconnaissance de la Fondation des aveugles du Québec 2001; Prix de Reconnaissance
